

As a resident of rural Maryland who travels to the Washington, DC area regularly. I find the traffic and weather provided a key service. It is especially useful early in my travel, when I am out of range of the DC stations. I use the information to plan my routes into the city. I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160.

Thank you,

Shawn Hendricks